

please keep this tightly regulated. We do not need anyone to have too much ownership over our airwaves & print. the media can be slanted as it is but if it also becomes almost a monopoly it could really be the end of the free press!